

"Ocean Breezes"

by
Gretchen Cox

Published in
Bead Trends
Magazine
October 2009

Charms & Dangles

Ocean Breezes by Gretchen Cox

EARRINGS

- 1 Cut a two link section of 6x8mm oval chain. Connect to an earwire.
- 2 String a headpin with a 7mm light gold pearl and make a wrapped loop, connecting it to the bottom link in the chain. Repeat with an 8mm seafoam green pearl and a 5mm dark teal pearl.
- 3 String a headpin with a 7mm light gold pearl and make a wrapped loop, connecting it to the top link in the chain. Repeat with an 8mm seafoam green pearl, connecting it on the other side of the link.
- 4 String a headpin with a 5mm dark teal pearl and make a wrapped loop, connecting it to the loop in the earwire.

NECKLACE

- 1 Cut an 8" length of 10mm round chain.
- 2 Cut a single link from the 10mm round chain. String a headpin with a 7mm light gold pearl and make a wrapped loop, connecting it to the cut link of chain. Repeat with an 8mm seafoam green pearl and a 5mm dark teal pearl.
- 3 Open an 8mm jumpring and string the center link of the 10mm round chain, a mother of pearl focal, and the three beaded headpins from step 2.
- 4 Cut a 7" length of 6x8mm oval chain and connect it to the end of the 10mm round chain using a 5mm jumpring. Repeat.
- 5 Connect a lobster claw clasp to one end of the chain with a 5mm jumpring.
- 6 String headpins with pearls and using wrapped loops, connect them to the 10mm round chain links as shown.

